

Robert A Anderson

Robert Andrew Anderson (1860 - 1942) was born at Mountcorbitt House in Churchtown. He was the first Secretary and chief organiser of the Irish Co-Operative Movement from 1894 to 1922. He died on Christmas Day 1942 and is buried at Mount Jerome Cemetery in Dublin.

We accord to Robert Anderson a high place amongst those who struggled to improve the material and social condition of the Irish people.
