About Churchtown

Churchtown is a vibrant Irish village in north County Cork nestled between the Blackwater River and the Ballyhoura Mountains; just 12 miles north of Mallow, 10 miles east of Kanturk and 7 miles south of Charleville.

The village is just a few miles south of the county boundary between Cork and Limerick. Cork and Limerick cities are 45 minutes away. In fact, Churchtown is less than an hour by car from most parts of Munster.

About your new home

When you become a special associate member of our club you have an opportunity to win a new house in Churchtown village. Your new house in Churchtown will offer 1,000 square feet of living space, with three bedrooms, fitted kitchen, two reception rooms and a lovely southerly facing sunny back garden. If you prefer you can opt for a cash prize of €150,000 instead of the house. It's your choice! Visit www.churchtown.net and read all about the village where your new home could be located. Welcome to Churchtown!

What is Special Associate Membership?

Special associate membership is governed by the rules set out on the reverse of the membership application form. Your payment of €100 is your once-off membership fee. Only special associate members can participate in the Club's confined members lottery to win a new home or €150,000 in cash. Visit our web site regularly at www.2winahouse.net and see how special associate membership is progressing.

Why you should join early... and often!

As each threshold of 1,000 members join the club five members will be drawn from all the special associate members to date and each winner will be allocated a FREE bonus

About Churchtown GAA

Churchtown Gaelic Athletic Association was founded in 1890 as a not-for-profit sports club dedicated to promoting Gaelic games. The club has invested heavily in facilities since purchasing its own grounds in 1984. The surplus from the special associate membership promotion will be utilised to pay for existing and improved Club facilities.

membership. Up to 20 FREE bonus memberships could be issued. So, when you buy early your chances of winning the draw are increased. Also, the lottery will take place as soon as all tickets are sold which is likely to be earlier than the end date set in the official rules. So, join early... and often!

Living outside the Republic of Ireland

Prospective special associate members who reside outside the Republic of Ireland should ideally join over the Internet by logging on to www.2winahouse.net.

Otherwise please complete the application form and mail to: Churchtown GAA, Market House, Churchtown, Mallow, County Cork, Ireland.

How did the last 'Win a House' do?

In July 2000 a house on George's Street in Churchtown was raffled with the proceeds going towards the work of the Churchtown Village

Renewal Trust. Over 2,000 tickets were sold with over 50% of all ticket sales coming from our web site. The winner was a Dublin based lawyer. You could be the winner this time!

How much is e100?

While currencies can fluctuate considerably e100 was worth approximately US$120 or £70

Sterling when this brochure was first printed. All non-euro denominated credit or debit card accounts will be charged with your home currency equivalent of e100 on the day your membership application is processed.

When will membership numbers be issued?

Every newly elected member will be mailed a uniquely numbered membership certificate. All membership numbers and members' names (but not addresses) will be published on the Club's web site at www.2winahouse.net.

"If scenery, a beautiful landscape, wonderful rivers, and good neighbours is your thing then Churchtown might fit the bill!"

Special Associate Membership Rules ©

The "Club" is Churchtown Gaelic Athletic Association or Churchtown GAA. The "Executive Committee" of the Club comprises the chairperson, treasurer and secretary.

Participating special associate members of the Club have the following three benefits: 1) the satisfaction of knowing that has made a practical contribution to a progressive sports club in rural Ireland, 2) that they will participate in a special associate members promotion for a new house at Bruhenny, Churchtown, Mallow, Co Cork, Ireland and 3) the opportunity to opt for a cash prize of €150,000 (one hundred and fifty thousand euro) instead of the house. The house at Bruhenny will be presented to the winning member under the same terms and conditions as the house will be made available to all other purchasers on this phase of the Bruhenny scheme.

Each special associate membership subscription costs €100 (one hundred euro) and this includes a contribution to the house lottery. Individuals may purchase as many special associate memberships as they wish and thereby increase their odds of winning the members lottery.

While currencies fluctuate considerably €100 was worth approximately US$120 or £70 Sterling when this brochure was first printed. All non-euro denominated credit or debit card accounts will be charged with the home currency equivalent of €100 on the day the membership application is processed.

Special Associate Members must be over 18 years of age. By entering purchasers confirm that it is legal in their country of residence to participate in this special class of membership. Eligible parties may buy memberships in their own names and designate them in their own records for a minor child. An eligible person may also purchase a membership for another eligible person as a gift. There are no restrictions on who may become special associate members apart from the specific individuals (at least two) who will audit the membership and supervise the actual lottery.

Special associate membership is not granted until all monies for the membership have been received and a numbered certificate has been issued. It is the responsibility of the member to ensure that all payments have been made and that they have received their numbered certificate in the mail. All membership numbers and members' names (but not addresses) will be published on the Club's web site at www.2winahouse.net.

No more than 4,999 special associate membership memberships will be granted. A supervised public lottery to select the winner of the special associate membership promotion will take place as soon as all 4,999 memberships are allocated but no later than 30th September 2006. The lottery will be held under the strict supervision of the worldwide auditing firm BDO Simpson Xavier, Beaux House, Mercer Street, Dublin 2 or an equivalent international firm of audit accountants. The appointed firm will carry out a full audit on all memberships before the lottery and are irrevocably entitled to correct any errors and advise members accordingly.

Each member will be allocated a four-digit number from 0001 to 4999. The first number drawn will be for the fourth digit (the thousand) and this will be drawn in public from a black bag containing balls numbered 0, 1, 2, 3, and 4. The third digit (the hundred) will be drawn from a blue bag containing balls numbered "0" through to "9" and so forth until a full four-digit membership number is selected. If the selected four-digit number has not been issued, or has been cancelled or not fully paid the number will be declared ineligible to win and the process will be repeated to find a valid winner.

Churchtown GAA reserves the right to allow other not-for-profit clubs and associations the right to purchase or promote special associate memberships on behalf of their own members but all such sales will remain within the 4,999 membership limit. The members lottery is guaranteed to take place provided 2,000 special associate memberships have been issued. Churchtown GAA has the option to return all monies paid if less than 2,000 memberships are allocated.

The time, date and venue for the members' lottery will be published one month in advance of the event on the web site www.2winahouse.net and on the Vale Star newspaper. Special associate membership will expire as soon as the special membership lottery has taken place.

The executive committee of Churchtown GAA are the final arbitrators in any dispute and special associate members accept all the rules set out when they apply and sign the application form overleaf. All material relating to this special associate membership scheme is copyright of Churchtown GAA.
